

Surround SCM CLI Client Connection Drops When Using Microsoft Windows Virtual PC

Problem

The Surround SCM CLI client freezes or cannot connect to the Surround SCM Server when using Windows Virtual PC on the same computer.

Cause

Windows Virtual PC can interfere with the networking of other applications running on the same computer.

Solution

Change the network adapter configuration to Shared Networking (NAT) to allow the virtual machine and other programs to access the network without interference.

Article ID: 695

Last updated: 23 Dec, 2014

Revision: 2

Surround SCM -> Surround SCM CLI Client Connection Drops When Using Microsoft Windows Virtual PC

<http://www.seapine.com/knowledgebase/index.php?View=entry&EntryID=695>