

Limitations of Pasting and Dragging and Dropping in Helix ALM Web Fields

Helix ALM (and TestTrack Web 2015 - 2016.1) supports pasting images and text from the clipboard, Microsoft Word, and Helix ALM desktop and web client fields to multi-line text fields in Helix ALM Web. It also supports dragging and dropping images from the desktop and other Helix ALM Web fields to multi-line text fields.

These actions have the following limitations:

- Pasting content from Helix ALM Client fields or Microsoft Word is not supported in Internet Explorer or Safari.
- Pasting from the clipboard is not supported in Safari.
- Drag and drop to Helix ALM Web fields is not supported in Internet Explorer or Safari.
- Drag and drop from the desktop to Safari is only supported in Safari 6.1 and later.
